

Electronic Voting Policy for Academic Appointments

When requested by one or more eligible voting faculty members of the Department of Gender, Women and Sexuality Studies, and to provide the greatest opportunity for participation in important personnel recommendations, voting for faculty appointments, reappointments, and promotions in the Department of Gender, Women & Sexuality Studies shall be done by confidential, secure, anonymous electronic voting system (such as that provided by UW Catalyst).